BAPTISMS

Baptisms are every Sunday at 1:00 PM. Parents are asked to call the Parish Center and speak with the Priest or Deacon who is on call and who will assist them in registering their child for Baptism. The Church assists the parents by offering instruction on the meaning, importance, and responsibilities of the Sacrament of Baptism. Greetings!

Last week we celebrated the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Both Fr. Friel and I used the sprinkling of the holy water to remind all of us of our own Baptisms. Perhaps it would be a good time to say a prayer for our Godparents who “stood up” for us at our Baptisms. Though we always know who our Godparents are in our hearts, maybe a special note or call or e-mail to them to say how grateful you are for them would be appreciated.

As we begin our short journey through Ordinary Time, there are many things going on in our Parish. Last Sunday, I was able to accompany our Parish Choir to their Christmas Concert at River’s Edge Nursing Facility. What a great time it was to share the last day of the Christmas Season with the residents there. Once again, our choir, with Mrs. Leonetti, provided a wonderful concert for a wonderful and appreciative audience.

As you see today, all of the Christmas decorations have come down. All, except for the glitter, that will remain for quite some time...Many comments and compliments about our displays were made again this year. Thanks to all who donated at the manger scene. Your donations are used for further outreach programs here at St. Anselm.

Our school is back and running full steam ahead. As we move toward the end of January, we will be preparing for Catholic Schools Week. Please take note of the various activities to be provided during that week. It is becoming essential for us to take special notice of our AWESOME SCHOOL. As you know, the tuition amounts will remain the same for the 2016-17 academic year. No increase. We need to get the word out on the street, and fields, and gyms, and shopping places about the many good things that take place in our school. Right now our focus is on growing our Pre-K and Kindergarten programs. Don’t be shy; give us a try!!

In line with the focus on our current school, we will be making a push in the next few months to build up our ALUMNI base. For a school that has been in existence for over 50 years, our ALUMNI database could use some updating. Whether it is a home address or an e-mail address, we are in need of contact information for as many GRADUATES as possible. If you are a St. Anselm School GRADUATE, please let us know how we can get in touch with you, as an ALUM. If your children graduated from St. Anselm, and are no longer living in the parish, please forward their contact information. If you are in touch with some of your classmates from St. Anselm, please forward their information. If you have had a Grade School Reunion in the past and you have a list with contact information, please forward it to us. With a revamped Website coming soon, there will be information and an outreach to our St. Anselm ALUMNI. The time is becoming critical for their involvement with our school.

Monday is the holiday honoring Dr. Martin Luther King. When I was at Bishop McDevitt High School, we had a day of service for our students. Every year over 100 of the students came to school on their day off and performed service projects in the school. Whatever service you may perform on Monday, obviously let it be for someone in need. As our Jubilee Year of Mercy continues, maybe you can think of a way to incorporate the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy into a “spiritual day of service.”

May God continue to bless you and our Parish.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

AID FOR FRIENDS

Following the example of Mother Teresa, it will enable us, as a Parish, to continue its work of “Reaching Out” to those forgotten “next door neighbors”. And, like Mother Teresa, it enables us as a Parish to show our love toward the seemingly unlovable, the poorest of the poor.

Can you help replenish our meals by occasionally preparing a little extra? We are low on meals and need your support. Containers for meals may be picked up in the SCRIP Office next to the freezer. When you fill the container, please return it to the freezer. God bless you for your kindness.

Needed – Used Palm

Please bring used palm to Church next weekend and place it in the baskets at the Church entrances. The palm will be burnt to be used for ashes on Ash Wednesday.
