Welcome Father Mark J. Cavara

We welcome Fr. Cavara to St. Anselm Parish. Father Cavara was ordained to the Priesthood on May 21. Father comes to us from his home parish, St. Agnes, in West Chester, PA.

His family consists of his mom, and seven children, including himself (6 boys, 1 girl).

Father has expressed an enthusiasm to work with the youth of our parish. And, as you get to know him, he will embrace everyone as he begins his priestly ministry at St. Anselm.

Welcome Father Jonathan J. Dalin

We also welcome Fr. Dalin to our parish. Father's most recent assignment was at St. Ignatius Parish, in Yardley, PA.

Father will be in residence here at our parish. His main assignment is to be School Minister at Archbishop Ryan High School. A school teacher for many years before he entered the seminary, Fr. Dalin will return to the high school environment with a great deal of enthusiasm.

We wish Fr. Dalin good luck as he begins his time at Ryan and we welcome him to our parish community.

A summer greeting to everyone!

Summer is officially here both by date and temperature. I remember teaching at Cardinal O'Hara High School. It was known by the entire faculty that I had the hottest room in the school. Located on the courtyard side of the building, there was no circulation, only heat!! I am most grateful for the air conditioning in our church. Keep the "Building and Grounds" coming...☺

A few items to catch-up on...First, a thank you to all who arranged and participated in the farewell to Fr. Friel. The Liturgy was beautiful and the superb reception with the food, decorations, video, and the special touches were a fine tribute to a wonderful priest.

I had the honor to participate in several graduations here at St. Anselm. First, I attended our Pre-K Graduation. The ceremony was conducted in church. What a wonderful, excited group of students gathered that day. After a few songs and words by the students, they were all given certificates to say that they were ready for Kindergarten. Question is: "Is Kindergarten ready for them?"

The next day, in Our Lady of Victory Hall, I was able to participate in our Kindergarten graduation. The theme of their ceremony was: "The Storm is Coming!" The story revolved around a farm scene, with different people and animals anticipating a storm. Very, very creative and all of the students made their characters come alive. For my homily, we had a microphone mal-function. I knelt for the homily, not out of solemnity, but because I was closer to my Kindergarten audience. At the end, the students received their certificates and are now onward to First Grade. Beware First Grade...The Storm is Coming!

And then, the ceremonies were capped off beautifully with our Eighth Grade. First, on the Monday of their last week of school, the eighth graders gathered in church for their last Penance service. Many in the class received their First Penance here at St. Anselm. It was very fitting for them to receive the sacrament the last time as students in our school.

Next, on Tuesday, there was the Farewell Prayer Service. Obviously, this was the first time that I experienced the ceremony both in church as well as on Dunks Ferry Road. For those who are not familiar, after the Prayer Service in Church, with the entire school community, the 8th Graders leave church and line the sidewalk on Dunks Ferry Road. All the other students walk past each one of the 8th Graders, and, shake their hand. I even had an opportunity to do this. Quite a moving tradition.

Finally, there was the Eighth Grade Graduation Mass and awards ceremony. Once again, the graduates reflected all of their wonderful training they received at St. Anselm. From the singing, the readings, and the Offertory Procession, our students were outstanding. I joined them also for their Graduation Party at the Quartet Club.

Congratulations to all of our St. Anselm graduates. Congratulations and thank you to their parents for choosing an awesome school for their child's education. Thank you also, to Mrs. Murphy and our amazing teachers and staff. Thanks, too, to the two graduates who asked me to sign their yearbooks. May God bless you, whether you are going into Kindergarten, First Grade, or Freshman Year. All of you have been prepared well!

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

to all Alums, friends, and a few well-known teachers for joining us last Saturday evening at Katie O'Donnell's. A special thanks goes out to the Alumni Committee for their time and effort in making our first event a huge success. All who attended had a fantastic time! We were even blessed to have members present from the first graduating class, the Class of 1964! Alums – we hope to see you again soon. Anselm is Awesome!

AID FOR FRIENDS

As the need for assistance becomes greater, and the summer months approach, we encourage you to continue to provide meals and we would welcome new participation. If you are able to make extra when preparing your dinners, there are containers in Room B in which to place a meal and provide dinner for someone in need.

Vincentian Message...

In today's Gospel, we see how Jesus, on his way to Jerusalem, sent a "messenger on ahead of Him." To be the messengers of God, we must know well what it is God wants to say and do through us as he sends us out to bring his love to others.

In the month of June, you were the "messenger of God" in bringing hope to the poor. Your gifts enabled the Society of St. Vincent DePaul to assist 21 families, providing help with food, utility and rent bills.

Also, the Conference collected 75 bags of groceries for Operation Manna for the Holy Redeemer Pantry. Thank you for your generosity.

How to dispose of the American Flag properly!

The Flag of the United States represents the men and women who built America. We know that it is not just red, white, and blue cloth. As the symbol of America, it stands for the past, present, and future of our country. It represents our people, our land, and our many ways of life. We show respect for the flag and the ideals it represents by handling and displaying it correctly. And, when the time comes to retire (dispose) our flag, it too needs to be handled with respect. If you have an American Flag that needs to be properly retired, place it in the container at the main entrance of our church, or give it to Deacon Whartenby, and our Boy Scouts will respectfully dispose of it.
