A happy January Thaw to all:

I suppose any temperature above 20 degrees is considered a heat wave this winter. Wow, has it been cold! So far this week our heating systems in the school and church have been holding up. We are still in discussion with our snow removal folks. Not on the same page as of this writing. To the folks who responded to my initial plea for a “second opinion,” could you please contact me again...

We all know the word underdog from this past weekend with our EAGLES. Underdog can be defined as “runner up or second best.” But, we all know what happens to those who are called “underdogs.” The apostles were considered just that and look at how their influence and names remain 2,018 years later...

A few things to catch up on...Another grateful thank you to Our Ladies of St. Anselm for a wonderful Pancake Breakfast last Sunday. Nothing can beat pancakes, sausage, pastries, orange juice and coffee on a winter morning. Add to that the company of fellow parishioners and you have a recipe for Awesomeness!

A thank you to Deacon Whartenby, for once again planning and leading our St. Anselm Pro-Life Day of Prayer. Along with Diane McDowell, our dear Deacon led our parishioners in the recitation of the scriptural rosary. After allowing the opportunity for our parishioners to adore the Blessed Sacrament for 2 hours, Deacon Whartenby led our benediction. Thank you, also, to all of the parishioners who attended a part, or all of our annual service. Although not in Washington D.C., our prayers still were lifted up on behalf of the unborn.

Our Saint Anselm School Community has recently been given an opportunity to participate in the “Bishops’ Tuition Transfer Grant.” Suffice it to say, that the Dioceses and local parishes who have embarked on such a process have prospered. Saint Anselm School is only one of a handful of schools who were granted this award. Much more to follow...

We have parted ways with the “Parkwood Chapter of Alcoholics Anonymous.” As many of you know, many groups of men and women had the opportunity to gather in our school building 7 days/nights a week. It was due to Diocesan School Regulations that our partnership was suspended. We wish all of these folks the continued courage, patience, and strength that they need in the future.

Enough for now. May our good Lord and His Blessed Mother continue to watch over what we do.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

PS As previously mentioned, the cost of snow removal has escalated, along with utilities this winter. There are “Winter Expenses” envelopes at the doors of our Church. Please take an envelope and return it in collection basket on February 11th or send it to the Parish Center. Every little bit helps and we are grateful for your extended generosity!
