Greetings to all:

As we move forward into this New Year, we realize that a month has already passed us by. Were there things that we wanted to do differently this year, as far as the Lord is concerned? As our Christmas decorations and festivities have moved into our memory boxes, do we still carry the love of the New Born King and the Holy Family in our hearts and souls? Celebrating Christmas in church is always a spiritual uplifting experience for all of us. The key is to make that feeling last for the upcoming year. How are you feeling spiritually at this time? Doing something about it? A small manger scene in your home now?

A few things to catch up on...A thank you and congratulations to our St. Anselm Adult Choir for their wonderful performance at the St. Katherine Drexel Facility for the retired Blessed Sacrament Sisters. The afternoon was truly a special time for the choir and the Sisters. Once again, I was privileged to participate in the post-Christmas Show. The enthusiasm demonstrated by our choir, as well as the spirit displayed by many of the Sisters, made the words of the song: "...we need a little Christmas, right this very minute..." come alive. It was fitting that we performed for the Sisters on the Feast of Epiphany. Thanks to Mrs. Leonetti and our choir for a very special day.

Last Friday marked the annual March For Life in Washington, D.C. Hopefully this year will mark a significant change of heart and opinion of our Supreme Court. I remember attending the march one year with our high school students. One of the students, looking over the thousands of people gathered before the march, asked me: "Does all of this really matter?" The question was very sincere. I answered by saying: "It only matters if all these people vote Pro-Life."

On a more somber note, there has been a bit of vandalism around the back of the church, the parking lot area, and behind the garage. The dumpster also needed to be replaced do to illegal dumping of oil/grease. All the areas are pretty well lit. I do try to keep an eye on things from my vantage point on the second floor of the Rectory. I would ask that if anyone is on the property after hours, for good reasons☺, that if you see something that may seem out of the ordinary, please contact us.

On Thursday, January 19th, we celebrated our school liturgy for Grades 1 – 4. What a very special Mass it turned out to be. All of the grades that were present assisted me with the homily. In the first reading from Saint Paul, he mentions 4 gifts that God gives us to use every day. The following gifts were presented by:

Gentle→ Grade 1
Kind→ Grade 2
Humble→ Grade 3
Patience→ Grade 4

Thank you to all of our students and teachers for your help with the homily. You are Awesome!

Finally, next week will mark the fifth anniversary of our "19154 5K Race." The event will take place on Saturday, February 4th. All the details of the race can be found in this Parish Bulletin. If you would like to walk or run or volunteer, there is still time this week. As you know, the proceeds from our "19154 5K" benefit our young parishioners who travel to Steubenville, for their retreat in June.

May the Good Lord continue to bless you; your families; and, the United States of America.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
