I hope that the refreshing winds of October are finding you comfortably in the loving embrace of our Savior.

As we mention October, we first have to mention our recently completed Oktoberfest. Only at our parish of St. Anselm could rainy, misty weather not interfere with a wonderful day. As we were given a nine hour window of opportunity by Mother Nature, all of our awesome Anselm folks responded unbelievably. When word went out that everything was a “go,” booths, tents, attractions, kitchens, bouncy things were put into place. By noontime, I had the honor of leading my second “kazoo parade.” All of the young marchers, yes—me included, paraded around the Oktoberfest grounds, with a little detour into school. Musically speaking, our next stop is the Rose Bowl Parade...The day went splendidly, with a little damp weather not getting in our way.

Thanks to all of our faithful folks who worked behind the scenes for many months to make the Oktoberfest a reality. Thanks to all of those who worked the day and made the flow of all the activities and booths work very smoothly. Thank you to all of our loyal parishioners and supporters who made a point to come out and help our annual Fall fundraiser be the success that it was. And, it was a Success!! Thanks, too, to our cheerleaders and the Irish Dancers who entertained our crowds. Thanks to our D.J.’s for adding their touch to the festivities. A thank you to all of our sponsors and benefactors, for their generosity. Even though the Car Show was postponed until October 15th, (don’t forget...), we still appreciate all the time and funds donated on our behalf. Thanks, too, for our sponsors who helped out during the day and those who were present during the day.

A special thank you to Denise Gentile, and all of her “Oktoberfesters!” There is so much work that goes on during the entire year that makes our Oktoberfest so Awesome! Thanks to all, who in your own wonderful and loving way, contributed time, talents, and funds to our 2016 Oktoberfest. If we can only do something about the weather next year.....

Thank you to Father Cavara for the blessing of the animals on Sunday, October 2. With the anticipated feast day of St. Francis of Assisi on October 4, all sorts of animals were blessed, including dogs (of all sizes and breeds), cats, and even a small horse made its way to our grounds. Our outreach at St. Anselm is far and wide. Thanks to Deacon Whartenby for setting the date for us.

Thanks to Deacon Warner for attending a Prayer Service in Port Richmond last week, on behalf of a seriously ill child. Deacon Warner represented all of us here at St. Anselm. Please keep this special intention in your prayers.

That’s all for now. I hope that this coming week is a blessed one for you. May the Lord continue to bless you and your families.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

P.S. A complete list of Oktoberfest sponsors, donors, basket and chance winners will be published in next week’s bulletin.

Vincentian Message...

In today's Gospel we hear that only one of those healed returned to glorify God and to give thanks to God. It is true that, when we have a grateful heart, we know everything is a gift from God.

To give thanks for all that God has given you, have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent DePaul?

LOAVES & FISHES SUNDAY October 16, 2016

Through your continued generosity, the St. Vincent DePaul Society was able to provide 29 bags of groceries, laundry and paper products to those in need during September.

Our pantry is in need of the following items: laundry and dish soap, paper towels, pancake mix and syrup, soup (tomato, chicken rice and chicken noodle, vegetable beef, Progresso and Chunky style), canned pasta, stew, chicken and tuna fish, cereal, mayonnaise, mustard, catsup and salad dressing, fruit cups, sugar, sweetener, coffee, tea, cake mix, flour, evaporated milk, mac and cheese, pasta sauce.

From those whom we help comes a heartfelt, "Thank you for your continued generosity and may God bless you for helping us in our time of need."

If I haven't worn it, or do I really need it? Does it even fit? Pass it along and benefit the work of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul.
