A Happy Thanksgiving Day and Week to you:

As our Thanksgiving Day approaches, we are grateful for many things and people. For me, the Third Thanksgiving as your Pastor, I am very thankful for the welcome that you have given me. As I have said many times, I am also grateful for the priests who have served St. Anselm Parish over the years. On behalf of Father Cavara and myself, I share the following with you:

I encourage you to take some quiet time before Thanksgiving to bring awareness within yourself for all that you have to be thankful. May this heightened awareness enable your heart to be filled with praise and thanksgiving as we celebrate our wonderful American feast of Thanksgiving. The following litany was adapted from an editorial on Thanksgiving Day in the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Let us be thankful for our children whose uplifting laughter can rekindle joy and put everything back into perspective.

Let us be thankful for still being able to feel love in the memory of those who are gone from our dinner table and doubly thankful for the ones who are still with us.

Let us be thankful for our American Military Personnel, scattered the world over, who will spend this holiday in privation and harm's way so that we might enjoy ours in freedom and safety.

For those of us who enjoy good health, let us be thankful for our physical well-being. Let us be thankful for the willpower that helps us maintain our good health.

Let us be thankful for the women in our lives who pushed us to be what we have become.

Let us give thanks for spouses who everyday live up to "I do."

Despite all the pushes and pulls of partisan political warfare, let us be thankful to live in the United States, a nation of hope. Let us be thankful that so many Americans have the heart and means to help those in need in our own country and abroad.

Let us give thanks that we can believe in God.

Let us be thankful for the scents, the sights, the texture and the sounds of family and friends gathering on Thanksgiving.

Let us be aware so we can give thanks.

On a personal note, I am most grateful to all at Saint Anselm who continue to cultivate the spirit of our Catholic Christian faith in their hearts and in this community. On behalf of the Pastoral Staff, we are most grateful for the place of welcome you give us in your lives. You are remembered in our prayers every day.

The Legend of the CORNUCOPIA

In classical mythology, the cornucopia - the horn of plenty - was a symbol of abundance. Long ago, in ancient Greece, the story tellers told about a goat named Almathea whose horn was given away.

According to the legend, Cronus and Rhea were married. Cronus was a mean and cruel father and did not allow any of his children to live. Overwhelmed with grief, Rhea did not want the same to happen to her new son, Zeus, so Rhea gave Zeus to two nymphs. The nymphs surrounded Zeus, the young god, with care and attention. For a wet nurse, Zeus was given the goat, Almathea. After he grew up, Zeus later gave one of the goat's horns to the nymphs in gratitude. Zeus conferred upon the horn the marvelous ability of refilling itself inexhaustibly with whatever food or drink was desired. When the horn was carved out so the inside was hollow, anyone who had the horn could get wonderful things from it - like milk and fruits and flowers and nuts

CORNUCOPIA - A SYMBOL FOR THANKSGIVING

Some of the first settlers who came to this country thought of America with its land and trees and fruits and flowers as a giant cornucopia. We know that God is our real cornucopia - the one from whom we receive many good things. God's goodness never stops.

*Anselm is Awesome!
Happy Thanksgiving
-Father Chiriaco*

THANKSGIVING MASS

On Tuesday, November 21, 2017, the Saint Anselm St. Vincent de Paul Society will hold our annual Thanksgiving Mass in the Church at 7:00 P.M. All are invited to join us as we call some attention to the plight to those who hunger and, in some small way, attempt to alleviate that hunger in our area. The children of St. Anselm School and CCD will be collecting can goods which will be donated to Mother of Mercy House pantry.

Our guest speaker at Mass is Father Liam Murphy, Co-Coordinator of Mother of Mercy House in Kensington. He will talk to us about the Mission and Outreach Program there.

Please mark your calendars and plan to attend.

Vincentian Message...

The good news of today's Gospel is the extravagance of what is being given us. All we need do is be faithful in "small matters." The cost of fidelity has no comparison to the reward given.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent DePaul, you are sharing God's extravagant love.

Parishioners in Need

Unemployment, lack of work, layoffs have caused some of our families to experience a loss of income.

Our charitable outreach to these families at Thanksgiving and Christmas (food, gifts, and gift cards) will allow them to take the money that they are not spending for these things and use it for utility bills, mortgage payments, etc.

If you know of parishioners in this situation who we can help, please call either Father Chiriaco, Father Cavara, Deacon Whartenby or Deacon Warner.

People who are willing to donate to assist these families are asked to do so as "Thanksgiving or Christmas Outreach."

Christmas Giving Tree

We invite all the families of the parish to think of the poor at Christmas. Our Parish Family Christmas Tree is a special way to brighten someone's Christmas. Choose one of the Tree Ornaments, which will indicate gender, age, size and item to be purchased. When you wrap your gift, please secure the ornament to the outside of the package. Place the gift under the tree by 1:30 PM December 17th. All gifts will be distributed by the St. Vincent DePaul Society in the name of St. Anselm Parish. Thank you for your generosity and thoughtfulness.

Barnes & Noble Neshaminy Bookfair Fundraiser

Monday, November 20, 2017

Do you want to get some new books, music, and movies for your library? Do you want to help St. Anselm School raise money? Then come to our Barnes & Noble Bookfair at the Neshaminy Mall location.

The kickoff for the Bookfair will be held at Barnes & Noble Neshaminy on Monday, November 20th from 5:30 – 8:00 PM and will feature a cupcake decorating party and school spirit Frappuccinos in our school colors!

If you make a purchase from November 20th to November 24th at ANY Barnes & Noble store and give them our Bookfair ID, 12170106, a percentage of the sale will benefit our school. Even items bought at the Café will help us. Purchases made on line from November 20th to November 24th also count toward our fundraising total! Just go to BN.com to shop and you will be prompted to enter our Bookfair ID at checkout.

Thank you for your generous support of Saint Anselm School!

PROPERTY TAX REBATE

To help with the rising cost of living, you are reminded that Pennsylvania Property Tax/Rent Rebate Program applications are now available. There are new guidelines which will permit individuals that qualify to receive rebate between $250 and $650 from property taxes or rent paid last year. Funding for this rebate program is made possible by the Pennsylvania State Lottery Fund and is a rebate that does not have to be repaid. This application must be filed by December 31, 2017.

To qualify, you must be 65 years of age or older, a widow or widower 50 years of age or older, or a disabled person 18 years or older. Homeowners that have annual incomes of $36,600 or less and renters with annual incomes of $15,700 or less could qualify. Only half of your annual Social Security or SSI income is counted toward the income guideline.

For more information or an application, call United Social Services, Monday through Friday between 10 AM and 4 PM at 215-923-1900 and a staff member will assist you.

Thank you to Philadelphia Mills Advisory Council

Again this year, Saint Anselm and our parish organizations are grateful to Philadelphia Mills Advisory Council for their on-going financial support. On October 16th, the following checks were awarded:

St. Anselm Church	$750.00
St. Anselm School	$500.00
St. Anselm CYO	$300.00
St. Anselm St. Vincent DePaul	$300.00
