Dear Friends:

As our Thanksgiving Day approaches, we are grateful for many things and people. For me, the second Thanksgiving as your Pastor, I am very thankful for the welcome that you have given me. As I have said many times, I am also grateful for the priests who have served St. Anselm Parish over the years. To this end, I respectfully submit a Thanksgiving message from Fr. Dunleavy. We will always be thankful for all that he did to make Anselm Awesome!

I encourage you to take some quiet time before Thanksgiving to bring awareness within yourself for all that you have to be thankful. May this heightened awareness enable your heart to be filled with praise and thanksgiving as we celebrate our wonderful American feast of Thanksgiving. The following litany was adapted from an editorial on Thanksgiving Day in the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Let us be thankful for our children whose uplifting laughter can rekindle joy and put everything back into perspective.

Let us be thankful for still being able to feel love in the memory of those who are gone from our dinner table and doubly thankful for the ones who are still with us.

Let us be thankful for our American Military Personnel, scattered the world over, who will spend this holiday in privation and harm's way so that we might enjoy ours in freedom and safety.

For those of us who enjoy good health, let us be thankful for our physical well-being. Let us be thankful for the willpower that helps us maintain our good health.

Let us be thankful for the women in our lives who pushed us to be what we have become.

Let us give thanks for spouses who everyday live up to "I do."

Despite all the pushes and pulls of partisan political warfare, let us be thankful to live in the United States, a nation of hope. Let us be thankful that so many Americans have the heart and means to help those in need in our own country and abroad.

Let us give thanks that we can believe in God.

Let us be thankful for the scents, the sights, the texture and the sounds of family and friends gathering on Thanksgiving.

Let us be aware so we can give thanks.

On a personal note, I am most grateful to all at Saint Anselm who continue to cultivate the spirit of our Catholic Christian faith in their hearts and in this community. On behalf of the Pastoral Staff, we are most grateful for the place of welcome you give us in your lives. You are remembered in prayers every day.

The Legend of the CORNUCOPIA

In classical mythology, the cornucopia - the horn of plenty - was a symbol of abundance. Long ago, in ancient Greece, the story tellers told about a goat named Almathea whose horn was given away.

According to the legend, Cronus and Rhea were married. Cronus was a mean and cruel father and did not allow any of his children to live. Overwhelmed with grief, Rhea did not want the same to happen to her new son, Zeus, so Rhea gave Zeus to two nymphs. The nymphs surrounded Zeus, the young god, with care and attention. For a wet nurse, Zeus was given the goat, Almathea. After he grew up, Zeus later gave one of the goat's horns to the nymphs in gratitude. Zeus conferred upon the horn the marvelous ability of refilling itself inexhaustibly with whatever food or drink was desired. When the horn was carved out so the inside was hollow, anyone who had the horn could get wonderful things from it - like milk and fruits and flowers and nuts

CORNUCOPIA - A SYMBOL FOR THANKSGIVING

Some of the first settlers who came to this country thought of America with its land and trees and fruits and flowers as a giant cornucopia. We know that God is our real cornucopia - the one from whom we receive many good things. God's goodness never stops.

*Anselm is Awesome!
Happy Thanksgiving
-Father Chiriaco*

THANKSGIVING MASS

On Tuesday, November 22, 2016, the Saint Anselm St. Vincent de Paul Society will hold our annual Thanksgiving Mass in the Church at 7:00 P.M. All are invited to join us as we call some attention to the plight to those who hunger and, in some small way, attempt to alleviate that hunger in our area. The children of St. Anselm School and CCD will be collecting can goods which will be donated to food pantries for the needy.

Our guest speaker at Mass is Father Thomas J. Dunleavy who is now serving at St. Katharine Drexel Parish in Chester, PA. He will talk to us about the Pastor, Father Thomas P. Whittingham's Outreach Program at his parish. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend.

May we always remember the words of Jesus, "Whatsoever you do to the least of my brethren that you do unto me."

Christmas Giving Tree

We invite all the families of the parish to think of the poor at Christmas. Our Parish Family Christmas Tree is a special way to brighten someone's Christmas. Choose one of the Tree Ornaments, which will indicate gender, age, size and item to be purchased. When you wrap your gift, please secure the ornament to the outside of the package. Place the gift under the tree by 2:00 PM December 11th. All gifts will be distributed by the St. Vincent DePaul Society in the name of St. Anselm Parish. Thank you for your generosity and thoughtfulness.

Parishioners in Need

Unemployment, lack of work, layoffs have caused some of our families to experience a loss of income.

Our charitable outreach to these families at Thanksgiving and Christmas (food, gifts, and gift cards) will allow them to take the money that they are not spending for these things and use it for utility bills, mortgage payments, etc.

If you know of parishioners in this situation who we can help, please let me or one of the priests or Deacons know. People who are willing to donate to assist these families are asked to do so as "Thanksgiving or Christmas Outreach."

Barnes & Noble Neshaminy Bookfair Fundraiser

Monday, November 21, 2016

Do you want to get some new books, music, and movies for your library? Do you want to help St. Anselm School raise money? Then come to our Barnes & Noble Bookfair at the Neshaminy Mall location.

The kickoff for the Bookfair will be held at Barnes & Noble Neshaminy on Monday, November 21^s from 6:00-9:00 PM and will feature a cupcake decorating party at the Café.

If you make a purchase from November 21st to November 25th at ANY Barnes & Noble store and give them our Bookfair ID, 12020830, a percentage of the sale will benefit our school. Even items bought at the Café will help us. Purchases made on line from November 21st to November 25th also count toward our fundraising total! Just go to BN.com/bookfairs to shop and you will be prompted to enter our Bookfair ID at checkout.

Please note: if you would like to purchase a book for your NOOK device in-store, take the ISBN number of the book you would like to purchase to the cash register and it will count toward our Bookfair total.
