Dear Friends:

Please let me extend a very Blessed and Happy Easter to all. As you know, this is my first Easter with you, as your Pastor. It is a humble reminder to me of my ministry with and for you. Our faith begins with our celebration of the Lord's Resurrection. All that the Lord endured during Holy Week comes to its fulfillment and completion with the joy and promise of Easter morning. He is Alive.....Indeed!!

The Resurrection of Jesus demonstrated the greatest power ever seen on earth – the power to raise the dead to life! Note the effects that the Resurrection also had on the disciples. The disciples went from experiencing fear to courage; despair to hope; anxiety to calm; turmoil to peace; sadness to joy.

As you look back on the season of Lent, I pray that your experience of the merciful love of Jesus has enriched your faith. I pray that your encounters with Jesus, during the season of Lent, were an opportunity for Jesus to grace you with healing, recovery, resurrection and new life. How blessed we are to be given a share in the greatest power which continues to raise us up. May our troubled and turbulent world, may sad and sorrowful hearts, may addicted and anxious spirits, may broken and battered lives become open to Jesus whose compassionate mercy will pick them up and carry them to the green pastures and refreshing waters of God's love where they will experience healing, recovery and new life.

One of the traditions of the Easter Vigil, and at the Masses on Easter Sunday, is the renewing of our Baptismal Vows. For most of us, these Promises were made, on our behalf, by our God-parents. Today, we have an opportunity to say "I do" for ourselves. Last year, Fr. Dunleavy conveyed a wonderful explanation of the purpose and power of the Baptismal Promises. I would like to share this, once again with you:

Renewal of Baptismal Promises

Christians are called to implement the Resurrection into their lives by constant moral effort.

There is in our world a power at work that envies, that starves people, that exploits others, that kills.

There is a force at work in our world that tires, isolates, and despairs. That force is evil. Evil is the culprit that robs and wounds the human soul.

In the face of evil, we remember that the Resurrection is not merely a past event confined to long ago. The power of the resurrection is at work:

whenever justice is triumphing over the instincts of domination

whenever grace is winning out over the power of sin

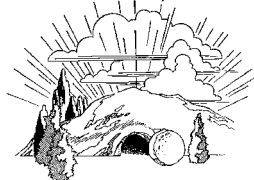

whenever love is getting the better of selfish interests

whenever hope is resisting the lure of cynicism or despair

And so, on Easter, we renew our baptismal promises. We say no to evil and Satan and refuse to be mastered by sin: we proclaim our best to rise with Christ and live more fully our Christian life.

I wish Fr. Dunleavy a Happy Easter at his new parish. It will be the first time in thirteen years that he will not be celebrating Easter here at St. Anselm. I know you wish the same for him.

Jesus Christ Is Risen Today!

THANK YOU!

On behalf of all who participated in our Holy Week Services, I wish to thank all our liturgical ministers and all who worked behind the scenes to make our services as beautiful as they were.

Thank you, Liturgy Committee, Evangelization Committee, for your planning, preparation, and for coordinating your individual ministries. Thank you Mrs. Leonetti, choirs (Adult and Children's), cantors, and musicians for all your practicing and rehearsals and for the music that lifted our hearts and inspired our prayer. Thank you lectors, greeters, ushers, altar servers, decorators, cleaners, sacristans, maintenance staff, school faculty, CCD catechists and staff, Pastoral Staff and Presiders – the input of each and every one demonstrates that liturgy is indeed the work of the Church which enables everyone to worship, to lift their hearts and minds with praise and thanks to God.

I am, indeed, blessed to be the Pastor of a Parish where everyone works together, for the good of all.

Once again, a Blessed and Happy Easter to you.

Anselm is Awesome, Alleluia, Alleluia!!

-Fr. Chiriaco

Are you called to be a Deacon?

While all of the baptized are called to share in the mission of Jesus Christ according to the gifts of the Holy Spirit, those who are ordained also offer service in a way proper to the Sacrament of Holy Orders. A deacon's ministry entails proclaiming, preaching and teaching God's Word, assisting the bishop and priest at the Liturgy, assisting at funerals, ministering to the sick and dying, leading the community in prayer and in sacramental liturgies, baptizing, witnessing marriages and exercising administrative leadership in the Church. A permanent deacon, who may be married, is a member of the clergy and shares in the hierarchy of the Sacrament of Holy Orders.

THE MESSAGE OF MERCY

Divine Mercy Sunday
April 3, 2016
Saint Anselm Church

2:30 PM Adoration

...Confessions

...Rosary

...Chaplet

...Benediction

3:30 PM Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

(Mass fulfills your Sunday Mass obligation)

The message of Divine Mercy is that God is merciful.
He is love itself poured out for us.
It is a message we can call to mind by remembering ABC.

Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to to approach Him in prayer constantly.

Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others.

Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust.
