A Happy Easter Season once again:

Does time seem to be moving much more quickly this year? First, it seems that our Lenten Season just flew by this year. Then Holy Week, as beautiful as it was, moved along in such a swift manner. Easter was joyful and splendid and, all of a sudden, we are celebrating the Fourth Sunday of Easter time. I guess the saying is true: “Time flies, when you’re having a good time” (especially, with The Lord).

A few more things to catch up on...Thanks to all who are picking up their Carnival chances in the back of the church. Thanks to all who set up the system and to those who have picked up and delivered the chances to those not able to get to church.

Thanks to all who participated in the Father/Daughter and Mother/Son dances this past weekend in the Church Hall. I was able to attend the Mother/Son dance on Saturday evening. What a great time! It reminded me of the Proms I attended when I was teaching in high school. No one was staying with their “dates.” The sons were flying around the hall, doing all kinds of crazy things, and moms were sitting at the tables enjoying the conversation and company of other moms. However, the most special part of the night occurred when there was the “mother/son song.” Although a bit awkward for some of the sons, for a few moments, they were together with their moms sharing a memorable moment. As I walked around the dance floor, I thought of my own mom and how we danced at similar functions when I was teaching in high school. Bravo, to all! I also had an opportunity at the dance to do: the electric slide (old school), the “new” cha-cha, I was leading the “love train”, and a few line dances. I had an awesome time. Thank you.☺

For the past two cold and rainy Saturday mornings, I found myself at the Benjamin Rush School. More specifically, at the school’s track and field complex. There, I have been able to enjoy watching our Saint Anselm boys and girls compete in the various races and field events. This past week was especially “rainy” during the meet. I watched and greeted as many runners as I could as they left the track for warmer confines under the tent. A thank you to all the runners and participants from our parish who train so hard for their events. Thanks, too, to their parents who support them, on and off the track. Also, a thank you to their coaches for their dedication and work, and for giving me a schedule.

Thanks to all who participated in the CYO Mass last week. Also, to all who set up and coordinated the affair afterwards.

Finally, at some of the entrances of the church, you may see plastic baskets, in a variety of colors. These are being used to give and donate any coupons that you may have, or would like to share. The coupons are for the “Mother of Mercy House in Kensington,” directed by our own Fr. Joseph Devlin. We are all grateful for your assistance.

Enough for now. I hope when you read this, the weather is better - warmer and more “Spring-like.”

May the Risen Lord continue to bless you and yours.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

Josephine C. Connelly Achievement Award

The Connelly foundation has long recognized the value of Catholic education and, through its grant making, has sought to strengthen and enhance Archdiocesan schools. In further recognition of family commitment to Catholic education, the Connelly Foundation has established the Josephine C. Connelly Achievement Awards.

Congratulations to the following eighth grade students who will receive the Josephine C. Connelly Achievement Award at a reception in their honor on Monday, May 9, 2016 at Archbishop Ryan High School:

Olivia Gribley, Thomas McLellan
Meghan Montoya

They will attend Archbishop Ryan High School.

Each awardee is entitled to a $2,720.00 tuition credit per year to be applied for each of the four years the student attends any archdiocesan high school within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, Mercy Catholic Vocational High School, or Cristo Rey High School.
