An Easter and Spring greeting to you:

Our Gospel reading this weekend is another story of how Jesus appears to His disciples, after the Lord's Resurrection. Once again, His appearance is misunderstood by His close followers. Jesus, once again, reinforces the idea that He did explain all of the events and things that were going to happen on Good Friday and Easter Sunday. But, when the disciples saw the Risen Lord, they were afraid and claimed that they did not understand. Sometimes, our faith can be like the disciples. We know all that Jesus said and all that He did for us. And yet, at times, we seem to drift away from these beliefs, especially when things are not going our way. Let us continue to pray, most certainly during this Easter Season, that we have the courage, patience, and strength to see the Lord constantly at work in our lives. We know Our Lord; we know our faith. Putting both together should not be that difficult to do.

A few things to catch-up on...First a huge thank you for everyone who organized, planned, and participated in our second Quizzo Night of the school year. It was awesome to see Our Lady of Victory Hall so crowded with our parishioners and the families and friends of our parishioners. Although over 200 folks attended, someone said that, even with so many in the hall, "it was not squishy..." A great night of trivia, fine foods, beverages of all sorts, wonderful baskets to take a chance on, and a 50-50 drawing of $975 to the winner. It proved, once again, that our Saint Anselm community rises above all to make these kinds of events successful and fun. A special thank you to Susie Baptista and Jennifer Rondeau, and to all of our faithful volunteers that enabled the night to be so successful. Thanks, too, to Fr. Cavara for his help and guidance and fine work at the microphone.

On the Sunday after Easter, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Divine Mercy of Jesus. Once again, our Saint Anselm Church served as the central worship location for the celebration of the feast day. The events began at 2:30 with the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. This coincides with the recitation of the Rosary, followed by the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. With the Sacrament of Reconciliation being offered throughout the afternoon, there was Benediction offered at 3:15. At 3:30, I was privileged to celebrate the Mass for Divine Mercy Sunday. A thank you to Frank and Adele Nessel for, once again, preparing such a beautiful and reverent day in honor of St. Faustina and the devotions directed to the Divine Mercy. Thanks to all of our greeters and ushers who assisted those who were visiting our church on that day. Thanks, too, to Fr. Cavara for his help for the ceremonies.

Many thanks to all who attended, planned, and performed in our annual "Broadway Concert." Once again, Our Lady of Victory Hall was transformed into 42nd Street and Radio City Music Hall. Our talented parishioners and friends treated all those in attendance to an evening filled with Broadway tunes and selections. Interesting, too, that the weather changed while the concert was progressing. We entered with Spring-like temperatures and exited in "Winter." Thank you to our audience, our performers, our school Dance Club and Children's Choir, to Mrs. Bowes, Mrs. Meisenzahl, Mrs. Thackrah, Our Ladies of St. Anselm, Mrs. McDowell, Fr. Cavara and our Youth Group. A special thank you, as always, to our musical seamstress who weaves her magic through all of the endeavors or time and rehearsals and set-ups → Mrs. Leonetti!

As our Race for Education approaches, we are grateful to our faithful counters who meet twice a week to sort and process all of the envelopes used for the fund raiser. Under the guidance of Loren Pierson and MaryAnn Thackrah, the Race is taking shape and will be ready on Friday, April 27.

Enough for now. Trust in the Lord, even when it may be difficult to...

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco
