A Joyful Easter Season Greeting to All:

The Easter Season, a marvelous way to keep the joy and splendor of Our Risen Lord alive and well in our daily lives. Mary Magdalen was so excited to see Jesus in the garden on that first Easter morning. Even though she was a bit confused and overwhelmed by what was going on around her, she placed her trust and faith in the Risen Lord to overcome her fear and doubt. Doesn't that sound like our lives at any given time? At times, we too can be overwhelmed by the situations around us, either personally or globally. At times, we too can be overcome by fear and doubt at the circumstances in our lives and in the lives of those that we love. That first Easter morning should always be a promise to us that, after all the doubt and pain that we endure in our lives, there is joy and comfort to follow. As I have always said:

“After every Good Friday, there is an Easter Sunday!”

A few items that I need to catch up on...First, a big thank you and congratulations to the St. Anselm Drama Club, and their teachers, for a beautiful and moving adaptation of the “Living Stations.” The students performed for our school community on the Wednesday of Holy Week. The students who watched from the pews, contributed with a wonderful sense of respect and reverence. The Drama Club then presented the “Living Stations” for our St. Anselm Parish community on the evening of Good Friday. All who attended realized that they had been a part of a very prayerful commemoration of Our Lord's Passion. Again, a thank you and congratulations to all!

A thank you to all who contributed and attended the St. Patrick's Day party for our youngsters, in the Church Hall. All kinds of green outfits, food, and faces made it a great day for all.

Congratulations to all of our singers and choir members who participated in the concert at Archbishop Ryan High School and the Kimmel Center. Once again, the talent of our St. Anselm students is, as one would say, AWESOME! We are so blessed in our parish to have our young people excel in so many areas. And for their talents to be enjoyed and beheld by others is certainly a credit to the students, Mrs. Leonetti, and to our entire parish.

As our Lenten Season ended during Holy Week, I must make mention of the wooden crosses that were distributed at the beginning of Lent. Even with a “tangled” start, the crosses seemed to have been a good reminder to those who wore them of their Lenten sacrifices. As Fr. Friel mentioned in his Good Friday homily, the crosses found themselves in various places and venues throughout the Parkwood Area. I was humbled to watch so many folks give their crosses up to the Lord during the veneration of the Holy Cross in church. To see so many take off their crosses and put them on the nails of the standing crosses in church was a reminder to me of how seriously our St. Anselm parishioners have taken the Lenten season.

May God bless you for your sacrifices. Also, if you would like to have your cross back, you may do so for the next couple of weeks. The standing crosses will continue to be in the back of church. It's OK ☺

The beautiful spring flowers, plants, and lilies which grace our sanctuary and Church have been made possible through the generous donations of many. Please remember our benefactors in your prayers. Many have asked that we remember their deceased loved ones in prayer. May the deceased for whom we have been asked to pray be graced with the fullness of resurrection and new life in heaven.

May our Risen Lord continue to bless you and your families during this Easter Season.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

Are you called to be a Deacon?

While all of the baptized are called to share in the mission of Jesus Christ according to the gifts of the Holy Spirit, those who are ordained also offer service in a way proper to the Sacrament of Holy Orders. A deacon's ministry entails proclaiming, preaching and teaching God's Word, assisting the bishop and priest at the Liturgy, assisting at funerals, ministering to the sick and dying, leading the community in prayer and in sacramental liturgies, baptizing, witnessing marriages and exercising administrative leadership in the Church. A permanent deacon, who may be married, is a member of the clergy and shares in the hierarchy of the Sacrament of Holy Orders.
