A Happy Mother's Day Greeting:

One of my favorite days in the month of May is Mother's Day. Not sure how it will be this year but, when I think of Mother's Day, I think of the first true day of Spring. Sun out, temperatures seasonable, and just a nice day to enjoy. Hope that it is today. I pray for all of our moms in our St. Anselm Parish community today. And to all who have a "prefix" in front of the term Mother, you also are in my prayers. I also think of my own mom, who passed away eleven years ago. And so, I also pray for the moms who have been called home to heaven. For all of the dwelling places that moms have prepared on earth, most certainly they have a dwelling place reserved for themselves in heaven. I am very sure that our Blessed Mother takes care of all of that.

(Reprinted from the demand last year...)

Speaking about mothers today, I found some interesting, hypothetical antidotes in my recent readings:

PAUL REVERE'S MOTHER: "I don't care where you think you have to go, young man, midnight is past your curfew."

COLUMBUS' MOTHER: "I don't care what you've discovered, you still could have written."

MICHELANGELO'S MOTHER: "Can't you paint on the wall like the other children. Do you have any idea how hard it is to get that stuff off of the ceiling?"

ALBERT EINSTEIN'S MOTHER: "But it's your senior photo. Can't you do something about your hair?"

JONAH'S MOTHER: "That's an interesting story. Now tell me where you've really been for the past three days."

THOMAS EDISON'S MOTHER: "Of course I'm proud that you invented the electric light bulb. Now, turn it off, and get to bed."

(Taken from "Guiding Light," Shepherds of Christ Ministries, ISBN: 978-1-934222-50-8)

A few things to catch-up on... A thank you for all who sponsored, planned, and attended the "Bag Bingo" two weeks ago. Our Lady of Victory Hall was filled with the sights and sounds of a most enjoyable evening. Thanks to all who made the evening a success in many, many different ways. (Thanks, too, to those who shared their pretzels, chocolates, and spinach dip with me...)

Thanks to all for another fantastic "Sunday-Funday" for our older grade school students and our high school CYO. The areas inside and outside of Our Lady of Victory Hall were transformed into many different fun arenas. Thanks to all of our participants, parent volunteers and cooks, and to Fr. Cavara for coordinating a real special day.

Congratulations to all who received their First Holy Communion at St. Anselm on Saturday, May 5. It was truly a special day for our boys and girls and for their parents and families. All of our communicants were well prepared to receive Jesus for the first time, through the reception of Holy Communion. Thanks to all.

Enough for now. Once again, a Happy Mother's Day to all, and a thank you to Our Blessed Mother.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco
