A Happy Mother's Day Greeting:

One of my favorite days in the month of May is Mother's Day. Not sure how it will be this year but, when I think of Mother's Day, I think of the first true day of Spring. Sun out, temperatures seasonable, and just a nice day to enjoy. Hope that it is today. I pray for all of our moms in our St. Anselm Parish community today. And to all who have a "prefix" in front of the term Mother, you also are in my prayers. I also think of my own mom, who passed away ten years ago. And so, I also pray for the moms who have been called home to heaven. For all of the dwelling places that moms have prepared on earth, most certainly they have a dwelling place reserved for themselves in heaven. I am very sure that our Blessed Mother takes care of all of that.

Speaking about mothers today, I found some interesting, hypothetical antidotes in my recent readings:

PAUL REVERE'S MOTHER: "I don't care where you think you have to go, young man, midnight is past your curfew."

COLUMBUS' MOTHER: "I don't care what you've discovered, you still could have written."

MICHELANGELO'S MOTHER: "Can't you paint on the wall like the other children. Do you have any idea how hard it is to get that stuff off of the ceiling?"

ALBERT EINSTEIN'S MOTHER: "But it's your senior photo. Can't you do something about your hair?"

JONAH'S MOTHER: "That's an interesting story. Now tell me where you've really been for the past three days."

THOMAS EDISON'S MOTHER: "Of course I'm proud that you invented the electric light bulb. Now, turn it off, and get to bed."

(Taken from "Guiding Light," Shepherds of Christ Ministries, ISBN: 978-1-934222-50-8)

A few things to catch-up on...I spent a delightful, late Saturday morning with those who were fixing up our Prayer Garden. Much weeding, scraping, cutting, cleaning, and edging was going on that day. I know that we have already formally thanked everyone who volunteered that day but, as one of the fellow gardeners, may I extend my thanks. Thanks to Mary Lou and Tom Klein for supervising our endeavors. As a side note, the reason that the volunteers chose that Saturday was to have our Prayer Garden ready so that our First Communion children could have their pictures taken in the garden the following week. Another example of how our St. Anselm Parish and School communities work together.

Congratulations to our First Communion Class. I must say that it was a pleasure working with both our School and Prep children. They were very enthusiastic with everything they did in preparation to receive the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. From their time in class, to their retreat day, to their rehearsals and practices, our children brought with them a sense of reverence and enthusiasm for Jesus. Thank you to all who contributed and prepared our First Communicants for their special day.

Thank you to Mary Ann Thackrah, our School Advancement Director, for her presentations at our Masses last week on behalf of the EITC tax program. As we are trying to reach out to the many businesses and companies that we deal with on an everyday basis here at St. Anselm, Mary Ann did suggest ways that individuals can also take part in this program. It is really very easy to do. If you have the ability and would like further information, it is a phone call away: 215-637-3525 X 39.

May Our Lord and His Blessed Mother shower their graces upon our Moms today.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

Dedication of the Memorial Stone to the Unborn Children

Thursday, May 24, 2017

(following the Vigil Mass for Ascension Thursday)

Through the kindness and generosity of the Knights of Columbus and Academy Concrete, this memorial stone is located in our Prayer Garden. The stone is a gift to Saint Anselm Church by the Knights of Columbus Council 4921 Regina Coeli. Academy Concrete provided the foundation for the stone. Father Chylinski will celebrate the 5:00 PM Mass. A procession from the Church to the Prayer Garden for the blessing of the stone will immediately follow the Mass.

The Knights of Columbus Council 4921 Regina Coeli invite you to pray the Rosary
 9617 James Street

Please join us as we pray the Rosary with Christ the King Parish and ask Our Lady to help all those who are suffering, and their families, from addiction. Bring your family and friends at 7:00 PM on May 18th. Light refreshments will follow. Please contact Mike Ciampoli, 215-605-2857 or mikeciampoli@gmail.com

Vincentian Message...

In the Gospel today, Jesus says "...whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father."

Through your almsgiving, you are performing a good work, far greater than you think. The coins placed in the St. Vincent DePaul Poor Box bring Christ's love and compassion to the poor.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
