A Blessed Holy Trinity Sunday to you.

Today, we celebrate our one True God, manifested in three Divine Persons: The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit. God the Father, almighty, creator of heaven and earth. Jesus Christ, Our Lord, the only begotten Son of the Father. The Holy Spirit, sent down upon the disciples, the Blessed Mother, and upon us, with His graces, Gifts, and His Fruits that enable all to spread the message of the Kingdom of God.

A few items to catch up on... First, our May celebrations for Our Lady of Mercy. On Tuesday evening, May 10, Our CCD students honored our Blessed Mother in a special way with their Prayer Service. The evening also marked the end of their second semester. The students and those parents who were able to attend participated in an observance that was both reverent and respectful. The First Holy Communion class also had another "time to shine" that night. Thanks to Mr. Polselli, completing his first year as our CCD coordinator, Mrs. Granroth, Mrs. Leonetti, and to all of our teachers and catechists for a beautiful evening and a great year.

Our St. Anselm School community celebrated Our Lady of Mercy on Thursday, May 12. Their ceremony was highlighted by the students witnessing to the Corporal Works of Mercy. Food and drink items were presented, letters to the sick and grieving in our parish, clothes for the homeless, bibles for those in prison, all reflected how our school community responds to the Corporal Works of Mercy during this Jubilee Year of Mercy. Also, I need to mention how wonderful Our Lady's Court presented the crowning of our Blessed Mother Statue. Thanks to our principal, teachers, students, Mrs. Leonetti, and Pauline Frain.

I was present at Benjamin Rush School last Saturday for the CYO District Championships for Track and Field. I attended for two reasons. One, to cheer on our St. Anselm athletes. Secondly, to prove that I can attend a track meet without the rain coming down... Congratulations to all of our participants, their coaches and parents, and to all who qualified for the next meet at Plymouth-Whitemarsh High School. Continued good luck...

This past Sunday, at the 8:00 Mass, our St. Anselm Parish Community celebrated those couples in our parish who were married for 25, 50, 55, and 65 years.

Enough for now...At the typing of this article, the first night of our Carnival was postponed because of rain. I hope that my presence at the Carnival is not like my presence at the track meets... ☺

Anselm is Awesome!
