A Happy Memorial Day Weekend to you:

Memorial Day is always a time to reflect on the many freedoms and liberties that we enjoy in the United States.

As we are grateful for the bounty that we have, we are also bound by a sense of duty to remember those who sacrificed their lives, in many arenas, to preserve our independence. This weekend, especially during the month of May, let us ask our Blessed Mother to continue to watch over our country. And, we ask her, to protect all of our men and women in the Armed Forces. Throughout the years, each generation of fighters have endured different challenges and enemies. May Our Blessed Mother be with our military each and every step of their way, today and into the future.

A quote from President Reagan, at Arlington National Cemetery, on May 31, 1982:

“The United States and the freedom, for which it stands, the freedom for which they died, must endure and prosper. Their lives remind us that freedom is not bought cheaply. It has a cost; it imposes a burden. And just as they whom we commemorate were willing to sacrifice, so too must we -- in a less final, less heroic way -- be willing to give of ourselves.”

As you know, we recently concluded our annual “Family Carnival.” The word “family” continues to shine through all of the many necessary preparations and planning that go into such a wonderful 5 day event. (Well, 3 days and 2 rainouts...). Thank you to all who participated in the planning, volunteering, attending, and just saying a prayer for us that week. Thank you, too, to those who put a “statue in the window” for the good weather that we had. It certainly made a difference. More about the carnival to follow in next week’s bulletin.

A thank you to all for two beautiful celebrations to Our Blessed Mother, celebrated by our school community and Prep program. Thanks to everyone who prepared our children and who assisted them in church. A salute to our Eighth Grade “Mary’s Court.” Your respectful and lovely way of crowning our Blessed Mother Statue was inspirational to all.

Finally, a thank you and acknowledgement of two very special folks in our C.Y.O. Ministry Program, who received special honors this past week.

Joe White: “The Companions on the Journey Award,” the highest recognition from the National Federation of Catholic Youth Ministry, is presented to adults who exemplify the best attributes of ministry and Catholic teaching to youth.

Angelica Arest: “Saint Timothy Award,” the highest recognition from the National Federation of Catholic Youth Ministry, is presented to young men or women in their junior or senior year of high school for outstanding leadership and service to their church and community.

Have a safe and enjoyable Memorial Day weekend. Remember to thank the Lord for the abundant blessings that He has bestowed upon the United States of America. Pray also, to Our Blessed Mother, for the safety and well being of our troops. And may those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country rest in peace. Amen.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco
