A Happy “May” greeting to you:

It is here, the month of May. Spring is in the air; nature revitalizes itself; the celebration of Our Lord’s Resurrection continues and the month of May brings to us the remembering of our devotion to our Blessed Mother. As in the past, we, as a St. Anselm School and Parish Community, will honor Mary with our processions, dedications, and crowning this month. This year is also a special year in the Church Universal as we celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima. On Thursday, May 11, our school May procession will reaffirm our fidelity to Our Lady of Fatima. Hail Mary, you are full of grace for us.

A few things to catch up on...A thank you to Frank and Adele Nessel for all of their work on behalf of the Divine Mercy Sunday devotions in our church. Our St. Anselm Parish has become the central worshipping location for the Divine Mercy Sunday and many folks attend the celebration from various areas around the region. Frank and Adele coordinate a very organized schedule and plan for the day. It is a bit of a whirlwind for two hours; however, the graces that flow from the Sacred Heart of Jesus are allowed to penetrate all who gather.

Our Race for Education took place on the third Friday of April. Thanks to the dedicated work of Mrs. Erwin and Mrs. McDevitt, the annual event was extremely successful. Although the day was a bit overcast (where have we heard the word before--Oktoberfest, Carnival), the students from St. Anselm walked the necessary steps promised for the walk. Somehow, I ended up walking at least 5X around the parish complex...Thanks, too, to our parents who lent their support and presence that day. A hearty thank you to all who contributed to our Race for Education Fund. Just another example of how all of the parishioners of our parish work together!

Congratulations and thank you to our 5th Grade Ballroom Dancers. Our school community and parents were given a treat by the performances of the individuals of the dance group. Under the direction and music provided by their instructor, each student demonstrated a knowledge and gracefulness that are mainstays of the ballroom dancing experience. There is one part of the dancing that I enjoy the most. After each dance, or each segment of a dance where the students change partners, there is always a polite bow to the partner. To me, this bow represents a courtesy and an appreciation to the partner for allowing both their “time to shine.”

Thank you to all who participated in the “School Spring Concert.” What an enjoyable afternoon and evening it was on Friday, April 28th in Our Lady of Victory Hall. All types of talents were on display from dancing on the part of our Dance Club to Irish Dancing, to music from the students’ recorders, to guitar playing, to singing from the choir, to individual singing. Each group and individual brought with them considerable talent. Thanks to all who were responsible for bringing all of this together: Mrs. Leonetti, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Thackrah, Ms. Wolf, and Mrs. Bowes. By the way, one of my favorite songs was “I Love Chocolate!!”

There are still many more events that I need to write about; however, this is a Sunday Bulletin, and not a three volume set of writings. I will include more next week.

Once again, please set some special time in your prayer life for the Blessed Mother this month. What a beautiful faith we have in being privileged to pray to someone in heaven who experienced many of the sorrows and joys that we have during our lives. God bless you.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
