Happy June greetings to all:

It can't possibly be June. However, three snowfalls ago in February and March, we would have been jumping up and down for June. June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Through His heart, many graces flow down upon us for help, mercy, and love. A brief history of this testament of our faith: The month of June is set apart for devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. "From among all the proofs of the infinite goodness of our Savior none stands out more prominently than the fact that, as the love of the faithful grew cold, He, Divine Love Itself, gave Himself to us to be honored by a very special devotion and that the rich treasury of the Church was thrown wide open in the interests of that devotion." These words of Pope Pius XI refer to the Sacred Heart Devotion, which in its present form dates from the revelations given to Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque in 1673-75. The devotion consists in the divine worship of the human heart of Christ, which is united to His divinity and which is a symbol of His love for us. The aim of the devotion is to make our Lord king over our hearts by prompting them to return love to Him (especially through an act of consecration by which we offer to the Heart of Jesus both ourselves and all that belongs to us) and to make reparation for our ingratitude to God.

A few things to catch-up on...A personal thank you to all of our High School C.Y.O. parents and students and adult volunteers who cheered on the runners during this year's Broad Street Run. Our St. Anselm parish staffed the N/W corner of Broad and Arch Sts. And yes, I was one of the runners who was rejuvenated by their presence and enthusiasm. Their signs included: "Have you seen my Father?" and "Where's Bill?!" I was so excited to see them; and, I thank them for their patience in waiting "a long time...." to see me.☺

Thanks to Fr. Cavara for celebrating the end of the year C.Y.O. Mass for our grade school. Much joy and reflection marked the evening that began in church and continued in Our Lady of Victory Hall. Thanks to all of our participants in the C.Y.O this year, in its many facets. Thanks, too, to the Board, past and present, for all of their hard work that has made St. Anselm C.Y.O. awesome for many, many years.

Thanks to our First Graders, the "Graham Crackers," for their creative and decorative signs that were on display in the booths during the carnival. They also decorated the outside of their classroom to reflect the excitement of our carnival. Thanks, too, to Mrs. Graham and her "cut-out" helpers.

Congratulations to our "Dancing Classrooms Philly" contestants who won First Place in the regional competition. It's amazing how awesome our students are in many different arenas of endeavors. Thanks for all of your hard work, and thanks to all the adults who prepared you for the competitions. Well Done!

As many of you know, it is once again a time of transition here at St. Anselm Parish. Fr. Cavara has accepted a teaching position at Archbishop Carroll High School, in Radnor, PA. We all wish him well in his new ministry. Although he was only here for two years, his impact, with all levels of our C.Y.O. and Youth Group, is appreciated and will be missed. Also, our maintenance man, for many years here at St. Anselm, Jerry McGuckin, is retiring. Jerry has been a mainstay here at the parish and the school. Always dependable and faithful to his duties, seen and unseen, planned and unplanned, his devotion to "all things St. Anselm" is deeply appreciated.

One more transition, Deacon Jerry Whartenby has retired from our Parish Center staff. I thank him for hanging in there with me during my first three years as pastor. I know that he did it as a favor to one of his former co-workers at Bishop McDevitt High School. He has been a good and faithful servant to our parish. Deacon Dennis Warner has taken over the "Deacon Duties" for our parish. Recently retired from the Boeing Corporation, Deacon Dennis now enters the world and work of the Parish Center. We are blessed to have 2 such fine Deacons in our St. Anselm Parish Community.

Enough for now. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us.

Anselm is awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

Burns Funeral Home

for, once again this year, providing the limo and driver for our Race for Education Limousine Luncheon. A great time was had by all. We are grateful for your support!!!

Attention, Saint Anselm Organization Leaders...

There will be a Calendar Meeting on Thursday, June 21, 2018 in Room A of the Parish Center at 7:00 PM. Each organization should be represented and prepared to negotiate for meeting dates, fundraisers, etc.

If your organization meets on a weekly basis, please feel free to submit your calendar to the Parish Center by June 14th, attention: Kathy.

Thank you.

Thank you, Carnival Volunteers

Our Carnival volunteers executed a vast amount of preparatory work done behind the scenes to get the carnival ready and set-up. They arrived early evening and stayed late each day the carnival opened. Many arrived in the rain on Saturday for an early opening at 3:00 PM and remained to clean up, also in the rain. This was a trying year, weather-wise, and we could not have done it without YOU! You have been most generous and, on behalf of the entire parish, I thank you for how much you care.

Set up: Jerry McGuckin, Jack Tolchin, Jack Finnegan, Vince Hollister and Mark Gordon. Thanks, men. Your faithful support and hard work behind the scenes enables what is seen to operate and run as it should. What would we do without you?

A very special “thank you” to Fran Jackson for always being available to pick up donations and our kitchen orders. A good-natured Mr. Jackson could be found cleaning the Midway and parish hall on a daily basis!!! We are grateful for your support.

Food: Betty Vernalis and many others did the prep work, cooking, and serving the food enjoyed by many. Thank you, Nancy Anderson, for handling the food ordering and keeping the “fridge well stocked” and making lemonade. Thank you to our food runners for assisting with the outdoor kitchen set-up and “running” the food.

The Leonetti Funnel Cake Booth, under the direction of Diane Leonetti, has been nominated, once again, for the “Best of Philadelphia” award. Thanks to all who worked with Diane especially Toni Bird for preparing the funnel cake batter. We are grateful for Diane’s tireless energy and for all the support she lends in prepping the food court. Thanks, Diane and Toni.

Midway Booth Games & Prizes: To all who volunteered and worked our Midway games and booths, most especially Maryanne Martin, Karen Harrison and Gerry Granroth who ordered the prizes, cleaned, decorated, and stocked the trailers, I am most grateful. We are very thankful to Mike Kowalski and Mark Baptista for opening our trailers the week prior to and during the carnival.

Carnival Chances: Thank you, Cathy Russ for all you did to process the chance returns for both our school students, CCD, parishioners and each night of the Carnival.

Finance: Marge Karis, Dot Sullivan, Jim Jeffries and Jim Salamon and Mike Kowalski. There’s no such thing as Bankers’ hours here. Thank you.

Volunteers: Carol Kain for your organizational skills and the ability to keep every volunteer well informed. Your countless hours on the phone provided the volunteers we needed to be successful.

Clean-up: Thank you to Father Cavara and those volunteers who dismantled our food court. And, to our lunch mothers, who cleaned the tables so that our students could resume their lunches in the parish hall.

School Families,

I encourage you to get involved in the 2019 Carnival! We need your ideas, creativity and assistance. Proceeds of this fundraiser benefit our school children. And, you’ll have some LAUGHS and plenty of FUN!

Father Chiriaco

A very special “Thank you” to the following businesses who so generously supported our annual Carnival...
