An official Fall greeting, my friends:

Every so often, in this bulletin, I talk about the various weather conditions that we may be experiencing throughout the seasons. However, in the past couple of weeks, we, as Americans, have seen the rage and the devastation of two powerful hurricanes, Harvey and Irma. We are truly blessed in the area in which we live. After seeing and hearing of all the destruction that these hurricanes have wrought to our country, especially in the South, we always wonder how those types of storms would affect us. While we wonder, we certainly extend our prayers to those who have had to deal with these natural disasters. Our second collection last week was tremendously generous in your outpouring of concern for those affected. Once again, even with the snowstorms and rain that we encounter at times, let us thank God that, on a yearly basis, we do not have to be as concerned with this type of weather disrupting our lives. May those who perished in these storms rest in peace.

A few things to catch-up on...As you are well aware, our school community is in high gear. It has been interesting so far with the addition of our PreK-3 Program. Last week, we dedicated their classroom in honor and memory of Tony and Helen DiLullo. This was made possible by a generous gift from our Skiba Family, Phyllis and Joseph. Along with their son, Stephen, all three were on hand with our PreK-3 class, teacher, and assistants, for picture taking and appreciation. Our school community truly thanks the Skiba family for their generosity and continued support of our St. Anselm School. Another story from PreK3 and our Kindergarten students...The other day, I stopped by our Kindergarten rooms. It seems that our Kindergarten students, who are all of 5 years old, sometimes lead our 3 year olds to the main office. Just a short trip around and down the first floor corridors. However, our Kindergarten students have an interesting take on their responsibilities. They told me that “they are glad to take the babies down to the office.” Two years makes such a difference. However, every parent could tell me the same thing...

As you read this bulletin, we are preparing for our annual Oktoberfest next Saturday, September 30. Once again, our parish parking lot will be transformed into the sights, sounds, and smells that are a tradition of our yearly festival. For the younger parishioners, be sure to be on hand at noon time for the Kazoo Parade. It is always up there with the Mummers’ and Rose Bowl parades. (OK, I can dream, can’t I...?☺) Many food delicacies will be available. Also, our time-honored beverages will be available, for those of the correct age...Always the accepted beginning of Fall, our Oktoberfest is second to none. But, then again, so are we!

On Sunday, October 1, St. Anselm Parish will hold its first, hopefully annual, Tailgate Party in conjunction with the Eagles-Chargers football game. “Gates open” at 2:30 PM. 4 Big Screen TV’s will enhance our parking lot. Along with each tailgater’s set-up and menu, food and beverages will also be available. Same rules as Oktoberfest for our time-honored beverages. Once again, St. Anselm is FIRST, in thinking outside of the box!

Enough for now. Please continue to check our Bulletin for all of the exciting activities that are coming up in our school and parish. Please, if you are able, continue the nightly patrols around our property. Always the need for vigilance is important and we are most grateful. Let us pray to Our Lord for one another.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco
