Dear Friends:

Rejoice in the Lord, always! Again, I say, “Rejoice!” As we enter our third week of the Advent Season, we are greeted in church by the above phrase. In the sanctuary, the priest is wearing “Rose colored” vestments. The Church officially calls today, Gaudete Sunday. The word “Gaudete” means (“Rejoice”), taken from the Latin translation of St. Paul’s Letter to the Philippians. It sets a tone to joyful expectation for the Lord’s birth; and, Second Coming.

Also, this weekend is the first weekend in the Church’s Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy

Jubilee Year of Mercy

December 8, 2015 – November 20, 2016

“We constantly need to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a wellspring of joy, serenity, and peace. Our salvation depends on it.”

~ Pope Francis

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia invites everyone to celebrate the Jubilee Year of Mercy, a time to meditate upon and more actively respond to the infinite mercy of God, which he offers to every soul through His Son, Jesus Christ. Please explore the resources below to learn more about the Holy Year, how to live it, and about God’s greatest attribute, mercy.

As a Universal Church, we are privileged that a Jubilee Year has been granted to us by Pope Francis. The original Jubilee Year was celebrated in the year 1300. It was to occur every fifty years subsequent. The last Jubilee Year was celebrated in the Year 2000. That is why this year it is called an Extraordinary Jubilee Year.

With the Year of Mercy in mind, we recall some of the lessons that we memorized in the Baltimore Catechism. Namely, the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. For the sake of review (Sister will ask questions, later☺)...

The Corporal Works of Mercy:

- To feed the hungry;
- To give drink to the thirsty;
- To clothe the naked;
- To house the homeless;
- To visit the sick;
- To ransom the captive;
- To bury the dead.

The Spiritual Works of Mercy:

- To instruct the ignorant;
- To counsel the doubtful;
- To admonish sinners;
- To bear wrongs patiently;
- To forgive offences willingly;
- To comfort the afflicted;
- To pray for the living and the dead.

These Works of Mercy are certainly in full view here at St. Anselm Parish. Through our various societies, outreach programs, activities and service projects in our grade school, and countless quiet ways that our parishioners reach out to those in need. The gifts in front of the Blessed Mother’s altar today speak volumes about our Parish mercy.

As our Jubilee Year begins and our fiscal year comes to a close, please feel free to take any of the materials that are at the entrances of our church. Little Blue Books, holy cards with Pope Francis on the front (sorry, there are none with Fr. Friel☺) and the 2016 calendars.

As we continue to prepare for Christmas, may the Lord assist you with all the many necessary preparations you need to make. But please, do not forget the spiritual preparations you need to make for your soul. As you get everything and everyone around you ready for Christmas, do not neglect your soul! More to follow next week...

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco
