Happy Fourth of July weekend!

When I was a high school teacher, this date always signaled to me the end of my summer vacation. Even though nine weeks still remained, it was time for me to get the books and materials out of my school bag and begin to work on the upcoming year.

This year is much different for me, as your pastor. Somehow, after last week's "calendar meeting," I am now aware of "everything" that will take place in our Parish community and school, through June, 2016!!

However, the Fourth of July is always a good time to reflect on the great country that we live in. Also, it is a good time to contemplate the wonderful faith that we have as Catholics.

Our magnificent American flag has three central and vivid colors. The red stripes on our flag symbolize the hardiness and valor of the American people who are always willing to sacrifice for others. The white stripes on our flag symbolize the purity and innocence of a people who recognized that tyranny would not be part of their "new" country. The blue field of stars on our flag symbolizes the vigilance, perseverance, and justice of a country that still strives to make herself better.

We can also apply these three special colors to our Church and our beliefs. The color red is always a symbol to Catholics of the precious Body and Blood of Christ that we celebrate in the Eucharist. Also, that Our Lord sacrificed His life for our salvation. The color white shows how all of us, no matter our age, are children of God. It is our effort, on a daily basis, to resist temptation and to walk always toward God our Father. The color blue, most certainly, belongs to Our Blessed Mother. No other faith in the world has Our Lady as a Model and Intercessor. With a mother's love, she continues to watch over her children, as she watched over the Child Jesus.

Please enjoy your holiday weekend, wherever you are spending it.

Please continue to "talk up" our great parish, our school, CCD Program, and all of the activities and groups.

"Anselm is Awesome."

Be safe; and, may God bless you.

-Fr. Chiriaco
