BAPTISMS

Baptisms are every Sunday at 1:00 PM. Parents are asked to call the Parish Center and speak with the Priest or Deacon who is on call and who will assist them in registering their child for Baptism. The Church assists the parents by offering instruction on the meaning, importance, and responsibilities of the sacrament of Baptism. A Pre-Jordan Baptismal Program for helping parents prepare for the spiritual birth of their child is held on the fourth Sunday of most months in the Spirituality Center following the Noon Mass.

Another summer week has gone by. Hope you are surviving the hot temperatures.

As a member of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, you are probably familiar with the tradition of how Catholics in Philadelphia talk, not in terms of where they live, but what parish they are from. I wasn't from Cottman and Frankford Avenues; rather, I was from "Bernard's."

That reminds me of a story about a friend of mine, who was a TV news reporter for FOX News in Denver, Colorado. A few years ago, he was reporting locally for a nationally news-worthy story. It seems that all the major networks were covering the same story-especially for the early morning news shows. My friend had his little piece of ground to report from, with the NBC morning show crew right next to him. Each had their own camera people and producers. When my buddy finished his spot, he went to the local donut place for a bit of breakfast. While he was in line, he noticed that the NBC producer was standing behind him. Not being sure if "the fox and the peacock" were to be seen talking to one another, my friend said hello to the man. "Where are you from," the producer asked? "From Philadelphia," my friend responded. "Where about in Philly?" "From the Northeast." "Where did you go to high school?" "I went to Judge." "I went to Ryan." And suddenly, in the wee hours of a cold morning, the Archdiocese was alive and well in Denver, Colorado!

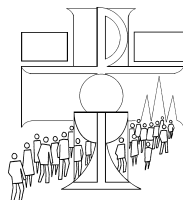

As the Pope's visit approaches, all eyes will be on the city of Philadelphia; but, more importantly, on our Archdiocese. Let the people of the world see what a beautiful jewel we have, and are, in Philadelphia. We have had our flaws and troubles as a city and as a Church, but this is the time for us to shine. May God grant us all the graces we need to be seen as a Church fully alive. And may the Holy Father, along with the rest of the country and the world, witness what a great spirit exists in the good people of our parishes.

The Archdiocese is consecrated to both the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. May our hearts beat as one with Theirs and may the Church worldwide draw life from us. Where are you from? I'm from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia!

Anselm is Awesome!
