BAPTISMS

Baptisms are every Sunday at 1:00 PM. Parents are asked to call the Parish Center and speak with the Priest or Deacon who is on call and who will assist them in registering their child for Baptism. The Church assists the parents by offering instruction on the meaning, importance, and responsibilities of the sacrament of Baptism. A Pre-Jordan Baptismal Program for helping parents prepare for the spiritual birth of their child is held on the fourth Sunday of most months in the Spirituality Center following the Noon Mass. Our next class will be Sunday, November 22nd.

Hi to All:

Every once in a while, I lean towards a former Philadelphia Inquirer sportswriter, Bill Lyon, who had an occasional article entitled: “Sudden thoughts and Second thoughts.” Items he needed to catch up on. First, let me say thank you to all who participated in, and planned for, our celebrating of the Sacrament of Confirmation on Monday, October 26. There were 55 St. Anselm young ladies and gentlemen who received the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, through Bishop Fitzgerald. The Mass was absolutely beautiful: the decorations, the music, the way the students conducted themselves during the ceremony were all gentle reminders of how great the sacramental programs are at St. Anselm.

Last weekend, we had the annual Fall cleaning of the Parish Prayer Garden. So many of our good folks who are very devoted to the upkeep of the garden gathered to get it ready for the winter months. Thank you to: Lynn and Steven O’Donnell, Louise Anderson, Betty Vernalis, Mary Clark, Carl Hiller, Deke Martin, Rosemary Tucci, Tom and Mary Lou Klein. We thank, too, our young gardeners: Madelena Kowalski and Eric Tucci.

Also, on Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Buck continued another wonderful St. Anselm tradition with the fund raiser that they sponsor in memory of their son, Christopher Buck. So many family, friends and parishioners made the night a successful event. On my way back to the rectory, I met two young ladies who were getting a bit of fresh air near the church. As I walked by, one of them said; “Hi Father Chiriaco, I was one of your students at Bishop McDevitt.” She told me her name and I instantly told her where she sat in my class. The young lady was actually the niece of Mrs. Buck. Thank you to the Buck Family for their continued generosity and commitment to St. Anselm Parish and School.

In addition, there was the Walk in support of our St. Vincent DePaul Society. About a dozen and half walkers braved a chilly Saturday morning to walk in order to raise funds for the many people that our St. Vincent DePaul Society assists. The walkers ranged in age from the young to the young at heart.

Finally, as you will see below, the next few weeks will be devoted to the Archdiocesan program entitled: “Called by Name.” The program is an effort by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to put an emphasis on the calling of men to the Priesthood. As a parish, not only do we continually pray for vocations to the Priesthood; but, this is a chance to reflect on the vocation possibilities here in our own Parish. Many vocations have come from St. Anselm Parish over the years. Also, for all of the priests who have served here, myself included, St. Anselm Parish has been a special part of our vocations.

Whew! So many things, so little space. Thank you St. Anselm for making it possible for me to write about the many good things that you continue to do in the Lord’s name.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

CALLED BY NAME
A FUTURE FULL OF HOPE
ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA

All the parishes of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia are participating in CALLED BY NAME, a program of vocations awareness that begins this weekend. This program offers an opportunity for us to pray for priestly vocations; to recognize gifts and potential for leadership and service in members of our parish; and finally, to call forth and encourage these members to share their gifts in priesthood. Perhaps you know a man (16 years of age or older) who would, in your opinion, have the qualities to become a priest. Please recommend this person by filling out the response card found in the pew. Next weekend, place the completed card in the collection basket.

Vincentian Message...

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength...and you shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent DePaul, you can show your love for our Lord and your love of your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

Announced Mass Intentions 2016

Wednesday, November 4, 2015

9:00 – 11:00 AM SCRIP Room
(after 11 AM – Parish Center)

In order to allow announced Masses to be available to all people, including those who work and those who are homebound, we ask that you limit your requests to three announced Masses, only one of which is a Saturday evening or Sunday Mass. This restriction will be effective until Monday, November 16th. Beginning Tuesday, November 17th additional weekday Masses may be requested.

Please limit each intention to one name unless it is for a deceased couple or members of "The Doe Family".

Thank you for your consideration.

Ladies of Saint Anselm...

*Saint Anselm Night Out
November 7, 2015*

Men and women, mark your calendar for a fun Night Out from 6:00 to 9:00 PM in Our Lady of Victory Hall. Tickets are available at the Parish Center.
