BAPTISMS

Baptisms are every Sunday at 1:00 PM. Parents are asked to call the Parish Center and speak with the Priest or Deacon who is on call and who will assist them in registering their child for Baptism. The Church assists the parents by offering instruction on the meaning, importance, and responsibilities of the sacrament of Baptism. A Pre-Jordan Baptismal Program for helping parents prepare for the spiritual birth of their child is held on the fourth Sunday of most months in the Spirituality Center following the Noon Mass. Our next class will be Sunday, November 22nd.

Greetings:

I hope that the Autumn weather finds you enjoying your life with the Lord. How beautiful were the Fall foliage and temperatures this year.

I need to follow up from last week's bulletin, to include a few more items and activities from our Parish. In the beginning of October, Deacon Whartenby blessed the animals on the feast of St. Francis of Assisi. All shapes and sizes were included. And this also applied to the animals that were blessed☺ A thank you to all those who attended, and to Deacon Whartenby.

On the Sunday before Halloween, there was a party in the church hall for the younger members of our parish. Halloween costumes and festivities marked a wonderful time for our youngsters. Thank you to all who made that event so "Boo-ti-ful!"

Last week, I mentioned the cleaning of our Prayer Garden. In line with this, we will once again make available the buying and dedicating of the Memorial Bricks. I noticed, as I walked through the garden, that it has been a while since the bricks were offered. There will be something specific about the availability of the bricks in the bulletin this Spring.

We are also trying to get the word out about our outstanding School here at St. Anselm. We are attempting to get the word out on social media. Members of our Home and School committee, and concerned parents, are mounting this endeavor. If you have any positive ideas to share about your school experience, please contact our Home and School Board and they will direct you to the correct people.

Also, you may be noticing changes in the look of our Sunday Bulletin. Fr. Dunleavy had wanted to change things up for a number of years. We have always valued our partnership with the John Patrick Publishing Company. We will, however, be moving in a different direction as December approaches. To this end, I would ask that if anyone knows of a business or individual who would benefit from advertising in our new Bulletin, to please get in touch with me. No idea is too small.

And, just one more thing if I may... Last year Fr. Dunleavy began a "Tuition Appeal" for those who could contribute to our efforts to keep our tuition increase to a minimum. If you have been part of this program, we thank you for your generosity. There are also school families struggling with the overall cost of Catholic education. If you are able to assist with a monetary gift, please contact me.

Many things for you to read and digest today. Thank you so much for all that you continue to do for our Parish. It is a strong parish, with strong parishioners. May the Lord bless you for keeping our Parish alive.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

Vincentian Message...

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us: "I want you to observe that this poor widow contributed more than all the others who donated to the treasury. They gave from their surplus wealth, but she gave from her want, all that she had to live on."

Ask yourself, "Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent DePaul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to know God's love and care.
