A Mid-Winter greeting to all:

One of my favorite television personalities was Johnny Carson. I even had an opportunity to see him live at the old Valley Forge Music Fair. One of the routines that he did was to ask: "How cold is it?" This question was immediately followed by a quip...for instance-"it's so cold outside that the penguins are wearing two tuxedos..." Anyway, it sure was cold just a week ago. We pray for those who had it worse than us. We remember the homeless; those who are scraping financially that they had to forgo their heat; those police officers and fire fighters who have to brave the sub-zero temperatures to protect us. When the arctic winds blow down upon us, let us be grateful that we only experience these types of temperatures every once in a great while. Dare I say to be grateful for summer's hot temperatures...?

A few things to catch-up on...I knew that it would happen one day. Sometimes, because of time restraints, I put a few articles in the bulletin, anticipating that the events that I talk about will have taken place as planned. However, as many of our faithful readers noticed last week, our "19154 5K" was postponed, due to inclement weather. This is the first time in the history of the event that it had to be postponed. Any yet, I waxed eloquently about it in last week's bulletin. We hope that the event did take place on Saturday morning, February 9. To read more about the event, please refer to last week's bulletin. Sorry about that; and again, I knew it would happen someday...

A thank you to our St. Anselm graduates, who now are students at Archbishop Ryan High School, for speaking at some of our Masses last weekend. Thanks to Elizabeth Walp and Eric Tucci for gracing our pulpit with their thoughts and experiences of Archbishop Ryan. As always, our St. Anselm alumni are prepared to enter high school- academically, socially, and athletically. Yet, once again, it is another example of how our school upholds quality over quantity in our students- past, present, and future.

Because of inclement weather last week, exhibits and projects related to our school's Science Fair, were taken from the Church Hall and put on display in our first floor corridor. After the Masses, on both Saturday night and Sunday, our Saint Anselm Parish community had time to stroll through our hallways and see how our students excel in the discipline of Science. As I walked through, after opening and closing the school on Saturday and Sunday, I had an opportunity to look at the creative and interesting ways in which our students presented their projects. Well done!

As we know, this past weekend the Super Bowl was played. A much different feeling was with us in comparison to last year. I didn't watch much of it on television, just the end, really. No matter which teams are playing, in any of the 4 major sports (and the World Cup in soccer), I enjoy seeing the champion being crowned. Usually there is disappointment with the non-winning teams; but, most times there is a sense of camaraderie and sportsmanship on both sides. Having coached as long as I did in the Philadelphia Catholic League, with both soccer and softball, I appreciate both sides in any game. However, the games are always better when one of the teams comes from Philadelphia. E-A-, oh well, next year...

Enough for now...Happy Valentine's Day this week.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

Vincentian Message...

In the Gospel today, the disciples decide to leave everything to follow Jesus. We are also called to follow Jesus, who tells us that “whatever you do to the least of mine, you do for me.”

Your gift to the poor can bring the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
