An early February greeting to all:

As you read this bulletin, one of my favorite feast days in the Church's calendar occurs this weekend. On February 2, we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple; or, what was once called "Candlemas Day." Old Testament figures, Simeon and Anna were privileged to see the new born Jesus, 40 days after His Birth. It was Scripture's way of fulfilling the Old Testament's longing for the Savior. It also was a day that, traditionally, the Church would bless the candles that were to be used throughout the upcoming year. Also blessed were the candles that were used for sick calls in the home. I remember, as a sixth grade altar boy, being assigned to the 6:30 Mass at St. Bernard's parish. The priest would use incense for the blessing of the candles. One never forgets the smell of incense at 6:30 in the morning...

A few things to catch-up on...This week we celebrated Catholic Schools Week. I would like to thank our 8th Grade Student Council leaders, who graced our sanctuary during the Masses last Sunday. Their speeches, and the respectful way that they represented their school, were all a credit to the wonderful education that everyone receives in our St. Anselm School community.

I extend a thank you to our St. Anselm School Community for a wonderful week celebrating our Catholic Schools in the Archdiocese. Many activities, pursuits, and projects were accomplished, and put on display, by all of our grades. The week was culminated in our traditional Catholic School Week Mass on Thursday. Once again, our St. Anselm students proved that what they learn in the classroom is quickly translated into their religious, academic, and social lives in the parish and in the community. Thank you to our principal, teachers, and staff for making our school awesome, every day!

Another successful "19154 5K" is now in the books. A huge thank you to our incredible board and volunteers who work tirelessly throughout the entire year to ensure that the race will meet the high standards set for such an endeavor. Thanks to Steve Schaffner and his unbelievably enthusiastic and dedicated staff for all of the behind the scenes work they do. All of these efforts benefit our High School Youth and Steubenville Retreat. Thanks to Councilman Brian O'Neill and his staff, State Senator John Sabatina, and State Representative Martina White for their continued support of St. Anselm Parish. Thank you to our Philadelphia Police Department, Philadelphia Fire Fighters and First Responders for their assistance and care throughout the day, and the course route. Thank you to our volunteers, runners, sponsors, donators, cheerleaders, and cooperative neighbors. Once again, it takes many moving and committed parts for an event like this to take place successfully. Thank you to all for allowing this to happen once again.

Also, this weekend, we celebrate the Feast Day of St. Blaise. As all have the opportunity to have their throats blessed this weekend, we are once again reminded of the vast treasure that our Catholic faith affords us. These treasures of faith include many saints that we have a chance to pray to for a variety of reasons that occur during the course of our lives. As I always mention on the Feast of All Saints, there is a saint "available" for just about any cause that we can think of. Let us once again rejoice in the richness and bounty of our Faith.

Enough for now. Let us pray for one another.

Anselm is Awesome!

-Fr. Chiriaco

In the Gospel today, Jesus shows us that we are called to place gospel values before any other values and to be willing to put our lives on the line for them. Taking care of God’s poor is indeed living gospel values.

Thank you to those who supported our efforts during the Christmas Season. We received $3,000 and were able to provide 35 Christmas dinners to parish families. The remaining money was used to help pay utility bills. God bless you for your generosity!

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
